== If you're new to my list, download also my previous pdf letter here ==

Before we start, if you didn't hear the latest news about My Music Ticket, don't miss it in the later part.

My Action Plan For You To Get Started Quickly On The Right Foot This one is for the “newbies”:

After receiving the first feedbacks to my May letter it is clear – you need to build your list first of all and I'm giving you a clear straight way right now:

There may still be some obstacles like information overload, confusion and procrastination, too many things demanding your attention. Please do the following exercise with John Reese at Reboot your brain

Once you've cleared your mind you're ready for the next step.

This time I'm not going to expand on detailed explanations here – you'll find everything on the way and no specialized skills are required. You most probably know it anyway already what to do, but this time just do it and you'll see results in a very, very short time:

1. Click and get Accelerate Listbuilding by James Penn. Its $10 and guaranteed for 30 days. If you can't trust that, delete this pdf and unsubscribe from my newsletters!
2. Study through the complete course once.
3. Immediately start putting one of the strategies (which you think easiest for you) into place.
4. Use Giveaways as contributor to build (another) list in the Internet marketing niche – you can find them listed here.
5. Sign up to the affiliate program James will give you and make 100% commission from your list.

You'll get an action plan from James and every tip you need to get started.

If you feel technically intimidated, you can get a free web hosting with website builder at Bravehost.

For professional hosting I recommend Hostgator and for domain names NameCheap.

For auto responders I recommend aweber.com

That's it, the best way I can think of to start your business quick and easy, with latest cutting edge knowledge and with minimum investment.

If you need anything else, please email me to support@infobiz.info.

PS: Once you've set up your first income stream the second will be easier and the third will be child's play. Just do it!

Now a few more exciting news:

My friend Howie Schwartz has new gifts for your traffic AGAIN. The "mad hatter" of traffic has put together a brand new PDF showing 3 new Web 2.0 sites that Google loves to rank...

Plus, he even made a video showing how to find the top converting "buying" keywords to use with these brand new traffic grabbing properties!

Better hurry, because he's taking this all away as soon as his new "SECRET" gets delivered . . .(you'll understand what that means when you go get your video and PDF by clicking the link below)

Howie's new gifts

If you get a chance on his new "Bonanza", take it!

Howie's stuff is top. Since I'm applying his strategies I tripled my business and I didn't even attend yet his high ticket Apprentice Program. Only through Traffic Holidays and Black Hat Is Back 2 I got to a new level. Perhaps you can still get them (I guess he forgot to put them down since our last promotion – its a 97% discount! and right now they are still up). Here are the links:

Traffic Holiday (Traffic Forever includes his Bookmark Generation $97/month)

Black Hat Is Back 2 (includes his personal 3 Black Hat Tools)

Water Fire Sale (great private video courses)

If you like to learn copy writing, I found a great steal with Jo Han Mok
With the trial you can't go wrong.
