Valued friend and subscriber,

Its time to touch base again. We're well into 2009. My planning is done – at least the first half of this year is clear. How about yours?

Did you reflect on your last year? Where did you progress and where did you let the circumstances or your fears stop you to make progress?

There is a very emotional and inspiring video I found recently. You should bookmark it and watch it whenever you feel times get tough - watch it now: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MysdL8J7nN8>
Are you gonna finish strong?

Another video of Tony Robbins I've put on my blog:

In the WHY lies the Power

Okay, did you start at all?

I don't know at which stage you are right now. Some of you already came out of the dark unknown and started a lively conversation with me – thank you. That's one reason why I started my newsletter and giving away marketing material. I'll be this year also more active on my blog and may start one more personal or should I use Twitter to stay in touch? Both would be best most probably.

Anyway, the point I wanted to make here actually was that everything we achieve starts in our minds. Without selfconfidence, faith (your belief in your own capabilities to achieve the goals you aim at) and a focused action-oriented concentration of your efforts you're quite doomed to fail in business, whether online or offline.

If you're in a job or coming from a job you must see your business as a battle and you have to decide to win the battle and belief you'll win. A vision will help tremendously – picture how your life will be when you've won the battle, make a very vivid picture or better even an internal movie about a day in your life after you've won the battle. Play it in front of your inner eyes every day. Hold your goal up and make yourself responsible.

Break your goal up into milestones (intermediary goals), measurable milestones so that you can feel a victory when you reach them. That is very important to motivate you even more to reach your next milestone. Don't put your milestones too far away. If you didn't make your first dollar, then this could be your first important milestone. If that is too far away for you, make your first goal to set up your squeeze page and autoresponder.

If your financial pressure is too high and you got some time in your hand, offer your capabilities for immediate cash rewards. There are always lot of entrepreneurs looking for writers, designers, translators, blog entries, social bookmarking, taking photographs or videos or collecting informations and so on and so on.. There are some sites where you can offer and find all kinds of such opportunities for a quick buck. Try these:

<http://www.elance.com/>

<http://guru.com/>

<http://www.freelanceauction.com/>

<http://www.freelance.com/>

<http://www.freelancefree.com/>

<http://www.freelancewebprojects.com/>

<http://www.getafreelancer.com/>

<http://www.ifreelance.com/>

<http://www.adveres.com/>

<http://www.governmentbids.com/cgi/en/index.prep>

<http://www.aquent.com/index.html>

<http://www.workaholics4hire.com/jobseekers.htm>

You can find thousands of jobs from very easy to very complicated.

When you've earned a few hundred bucks you'll feel good and you have enough to pay a year for hosting, autoresponders and tools you may need or even to hire someone else for the work which you can't do yourself. Just don't let yourself stop by any hurdles. "Where there is a will there is a way!"

If you got hosting and autoresponder in place, set up your sales funnel. First your squeeze page with a free offer like a report or email course and then your first product for sale. Its that simple.

Problem with finding or creating a product? I think by now you know that this is the easiest part, but if you have any questions, ask me.

For detailed step by step guidance I recommend you Bill's Product Launch Videos: <http://infobiz.info/poormanslaunch.php>

You don't have to reinvent the wheel. Bill was only a year ago or so in the same situation as you may be now. He'll teach you to use free and inexpensive resources to successfully launch your first product.

What is the difference between a newbie and a successful marketer?

Experience!

You have to get experience – get into the water, then learn to swim. Its funny with internet marketing, but so many believe that they must learn everything first before they can start to earn money. Its very much like swimming. You have to go into the water to learn swimming and you have to go into business to learn to make money in the business.

Actually it wasn't meant to write a report here, but I see so many misconception and I wanted to shed a little light on them that you may not go astray from the very beginning.

What you really need is focused action!

Are you somewhat experienced in marketing or copy or web design? - I want to offer you a joint venture for a large project:

However, there is some more advanced stuff I want to cover and after all I understand that a total newbie has to learn really a lot of different aspects in internet marketing to succeed. There are a lot of courses and guides on various topics, but I recognize that the main problem is to put all these puzzle pieces together and I don't find many affordable programs to cover that issue. Already since about 6 month I'm thinking to create such a course, but some private issues kept me busy otherwise.

Still I'm not over with that and I really want to take some good time for myself this year. If you have any skills in creating products and if you have some experience in marketing (not necessarily internet), you could help me realize it – we could work together. I've got an overall plan, but I see that it would just take me too much time to complete all the details myself.

How about a joint venture? “Is there anybody out there?”

Till I get this done I feel the best way to help you is to recommend you products which will at least give you substantial knowledge and teach you important skills that help you to realize the whole picture and can help you to earn money in the different stages in which you are.

Sometimes it may look like I wanted to sell you every other day another product, but that isn't the case and I guess better I explain:

You see, if you're the absolute newbie, you either need a marketing plan which doesn't require any experience (believe me those have all their own shortcomings and often don't work for a longer period) or you need a program that teaches you every detail from getting the idea through planning, creating (product, copy, web design), generating leads and customers and follow up.

There are some good programs, like Stompernet, Mass Control, Altitude a.o. but you have to commit yourself to a few hundred dollars per month – for most newbies just not affordable.

The next best solution I think is to collect the necessary pieces of the puzzle by investing in special offers from top marketers and I always watch out that there are no contradictive informations for you. Therefore you'll most of the time not find me promote the main stream offers.

But I understand that you have sometimes a problem to recognize which one is for you in which stage of your business.

So, what I want to do now and in future is to make offers or recommendations more clear to you as to where they fit into the puzzle.

First let me give you some basic outline.

Skills which you definitely need in any internet business:

- Research (evaluate the right niche, market or product, competition)
- Planning (mindset, goal setting, structure, checklists, blueprint)
- Lead Generation (related: Squeeze page, autoresponder, traffic)
- Conversion (copywriting, psychology, web design, tracking)
- Traffic (articles/content, SEO [at least basic], social media, pay-per-click and everything related to those)

I placed them already in a chronological order because I found that many start to think about traffic when they don't have a squeeze page or even a plan yet. There are some programs out there which start at that point like promoting clickbank products via pay-per-click, but these programs are generally not suitable for newbies.

- If it is the fear of not getting traffic once you may have managed the other parts, please relax. Traffic generation involves either elbowgrease or money, but there are many proven ways and there's nothing to fear!

Recently there are also more programs of another type offered: That is called turnkey business or business in a box in which the creators have already done most of the work like research, plan and lead generation. Conversion may be done partly and with a good SEO even traffic may be partly prepared by the initiators, but these two parts will always be your ultimate responsibility to handle.

You see there are many variations possible for which it isn't always easy to categorize offers. For that reason I buy and review from time to time products which seem to be interesting.

In the light of these outlines I like to show you my latest recommendations starting with those suited for newbies and those just getting started.

Further down are some very good offers for seasoned marketers, but anyway, please read through my whole letter because anyone of the links may be just the right one filling a gap for you and I've put a lot of informations in between.

Anyway, by any means – you need to learn, but don't buy all the stuff offered to you (also not from me) which you're not likely to use. If you're going to invest through my links below, I also offer again my On-

Top Bonuses, but I had to change that slightly. I'll get to it at the end of the letter.

Niches In A Box

This is the type of turnkey business I talked about. I made a quite extensive review so I like to send you there before copying all into this pdf:

You can start reading at my blog:

<http://reviews.infobiz.info/blog/niches-in-a-box-review/> or go directly to the review:

<http://reviews.infobiz.info/niches-in-a-box/>

If you're an experienced marketer like me, you may want additional income streams, set up in hours (I took about 10 hours) and running almost handsfree – about 4 hours per week. A small investment + 2 days work = income stream for years to come!

And you'll like that I obtained a special bonus for you which is another turnkey business.

Its a great product and for this price I don't know anything comparable, specially also because of the top training and traffic you get along with. It covers literally all aspects of your business mostly by videos. I have already several products from JP Schoeffel and I always found a great quality and quantity. He overdelivered as always.

What I love and why I recommend it to any newbie is simply because he provides for everything to make you successful even has great traffic solutions for you without any extra cost.

- - Let me put in here some more thoughts on getting traffic because that's most probably one of your major concerns. Here I want to talk about only 3 methods which have been around for long and will be around for much longer, sure ways to get you traffic over short and long term:

Traffic is one of the biggest hurdles any online marketer faces. But in reality, it's almost absurd to think why...after all, there are more people out there using the internet than any marketer could ever need or wish to reach. In other words, there's plenty of traffic to go round for all marketers 10x over, yet we still seem to get caught up on getting these people to our website.

Why? Well, the problem is that we often look in the wrong places or worse still, we look in the right places, but don't give out the "right invites" to encourage these people to visit our sites. If you're confused, don't be... take a systematic approach and you have more than enough intelligence and skills to get traffic to your website on a daily basis...whether free or paid for.

Here are some of the most well established and effective methods for traffic generation...

Method 1 - Write Articles (free)

Just like what you're reading now. Articles are a great way to drive traffic to your websites day in and day out. Be warned though, it will take regular writing and submitting (to article directories) to keep the traffic levels up and you may need to write dozens of articles a week if this is going to be your only traffic source. The better your articles, the more traffic you'll get long term, so you'll need to strike a balance between quality and sheer volume.

Method 2 - PPC (pay per click)

Considering most traffic comes from search engine searches in places such as Google, it is a good idea to get in front of that traffic as much as possible, and particularly when they are searching using keywords that indicate that they are a perfect match for what you're offering on your website. Now, PPC traffic takes care and attention, just like anything in business and it has initial costs. But the beauty of PPC advertising is that you can reach extremely targeted people to present your offers to, without having to worry about trying to get your website found in the search engines naturally (which is one of the hardest and unreliable ways to get regular traffic). And PPC is the fastest way to get targeted traffic.

Method 3 - Start blogging regularly (free)

Blogs may not be the most sales friendly platform due to their often awkward layouts and designs, but they sure do attract passive traffic when you work at it. Blogs come with so many technological add ons and features that it's possible to attract traffic from other blogs, directly from search engines, blog networks and social bookmarking sites far more easily and fluently than you ever could with a traditional html web page. The problem with blogs is that they need the most affection, in terms of updating regularly with fresh content. The blog posts don't always need to be really lengthy however, but they do need to focus on people's interests and be interesting enough to read.

As you can see, there are many places to pull traffic from the web and these 3 methods are merely the tip of the iceberg. However, they are possibly some of the most powerful ways to attract targeted traffic literally within minutes of getting started. Sure, they all require work to get right, but it's worth it in the long run.

If however you are like most people and cannot afford to spend all day and night getting traffic to your website, you may be interested in a service that does it all for you called Niches In A Box.

Not only does this well established service get you traffic, but they also give you fresh content to post to your blogs (52 blog posts to be precise) so you don't have to worry about all that time consuming writing. Add to that a product you can sell, a full content rich website, training, a premade blog, tons of keywords...and that's just the start. So if you haven't got lots of time, money and all the required skills yet, then Niches In A Box might just be the solution you're looking for.

Ultra System K and Omni-Science Principle

This is an around membership teaching you to make your first dollar and then expand your business in many directions, into multiple streams of passive income.

It takes a very personal approach (I liked it) and has a lot of input in regards to mindset, getting things done the right way and building a solid foundation. It is very affordable, but in my opinion it should have some instructional videos on building websites etc.

If you already gathered some knowledge, but didn't succeed yet, this might be all you need. (I think the missing parts are quite covered in my Video Vault which you can access for free).

Bill's Product Launch Videos

This one was just released this week – its brand new.

It is for newbies who want to learn how to prepare the launch of any product or service on the internet and execute it successfully.

You know the Product Launch Formula from Jeff Walker? His 2nd edition was one of the big launches last year – you remember “From Food Stamps to 6 Figures”? - and costed just below $400 or $500 (don't remember exactly).

Bill isn't a guru like Jeff Walker, but he is one who was like in your shoes not much longer than a year ago. He mastered the internet business very fast, he knows your position and he knows how to teach you his experiences. I just watched one of those videos about JV and I found its really good advice everyone can follow. He teaches how to use free and inexpensive resources to get the most out of your bucks.

You can use the knowledge of this course to launch your own product – you can also use PLR content, but it must have your own creations in it and unique graphics. Otherwise you may not get affiliates and JV-partners to promote for you – this may not apply for all niches, but you should check your competition first.

So, if you have your own product or you are creating one, then I highly recommend you to get Bill's videos:

<http://infobiz.info/poormanslaunch.php>

If you're since longer on my list, you'll know Alex Jeffreys and his free 2 hours call:

<http://infobiz.info/plpsecrets.php>

and you'll also get his ebook for free there

This product is definitely addressed to newbies, but even as an experienced marketer you can learn a lot from Alex. Its always an inspiration for me to listen to him or see his videos. In only about 2 years he managed to make a regular income of $20.000/month.

But I want you to consider your upgrade to his Platinum Membership He's giving you a full insight into his business – most valuable for any beginner, and many seasoned marketers could learn a lot from these insider videos – stuff which nobody else is showing in such details, in a way that you can instantly follow and copy his success.

There's just so much stuff and no fluff! There's about 50+ videos, an extensive course on listbuilding, autoresponders, emails, scripts, Google, and everything else.

The best part for beginners are his videos showing every aspect of his business, starting from the right planing well through his organisation, checklists and backend.

And I want to help you make an important decision. If you're struggling right now, don't look for another chance! Opportunities will always come and go, but when will you make it happen for yourself?

This is a proven formula by which he is making a constant $20k every month and often more.

Take him up on his upgrade offer. You will not regret it. He delivers it all in this program – really!

Here his link again:

<http://infobiz.info/plpsecrets.php>

I fully endorse Alex as a person of integrity and I'll make sure myself that this is the turning point in your business, if you join his Platinum Membership (its not a recurring commitment – just a one time investment).

Instant Sales Secrets

This one is not really for newbies in my opinion. You'll have to know at least some basics about affiliate marketing, researching markets and products (i.e. Clickbank) and it would be helpful to have some experience in lead generation in order to make the best out of this system.

If you have that in place or you're ready to learn it quickly, I recommend you Patric Chan with his latest software taking out the hardest and tedious work for you.

He told me once on the phone last year, if he would have to start again he'd start with affiliate marketing, make cash flow as fast as possible and then plan for the long term business with own products and services. But, he says, he is still doing this program himself because for just 30 minutes work he gets immediate sales and they'll continue to come with very little maintainance (which he can outsource).

I have to admit, its a sound strategy. I didn't come this way, rather gone the harder path, but I got his software already and learning his method quickly.

<http://infobiz.info/InstantSales.php>

This program includes a full training course (videos) on how to make instant sales – no problem for newbies who are ready to put a good amount of effort into the initial stage, at least one or two month. Seasoned affiliate marketers will just fall in love with this software doing most of the heavy lifting.

Easy Video Sales

This one is actually for marketers with some experiences even though the author of this course, Jason Moffatt, started with not more than this skill. You'll be able to utilize the full potential of this course, if you have your lead generation and product (can use affiliate products) in place. Anyway, you can watch his free videos and learn a lot from those already.

Are you into video marketing?

<http://infobiz.info/easyvideosales.php>

– You remember the genius I told you about?

You must optin to see the full video!

This is the craziest presentation I've ever seen by a serious marketer..

Definitely worth opting in.

Watch, enjoy and watch again to pick up the gems this guy is throwing at you..

Think about this – even if you're not ready for it right now: You must have seen that more and more marketers are using videos to reach out to you. Everyone of the gurus who are offering you those high ticket products are using videos.

What if you could use that medium to bring your business to new levels - with ease?

You got it - a few days back I told you about a young guy who is really a natural genius in using videos to pull thousands of visitors to his sites.

He's got his training program to show you easy ways to fill your bank account by using videos.

I'm learning this myself. I believe this is the way to secure our future market share!

Actually, I'm afraid that without the use of videos we'll have no chance to attract people to our sites in the near future.

Do you know the guy to go to? You'll see him here, but don't underestimate him because of his appearance at this presentation:

<http://infobiz.info/easyvideosales.php>

You'll also find his program after watching this video. He makes it easy and he is focused on using videos to pull in visitors and make sales.

Now some traffic news (of course its only for those of you who got a website or blog to utilize and monetize it):

Traffic Holiday

This is a special offer from Howie, the dominator of Google, the master of free traffic. I'm using his tools for pinging and social bookmarking on a daily basis. Along with some highly revealing videos he's giving away his Pinger which got me more than 300 visitors on a single day for just $37 and if you upgrade you get his social bookmarking automation tool.

You just have to be lucky that his offer is still up:

<http://infobiz.info/howiesgoogle.php>

Google Monster Traffic

This program uses an absolutely different approach.

There is no cost, no pay per click, no SEO, no social media and no other hard efforts involved.

David Lockley which you may remember through my review here has a partnership with Google as a software developer and offers here to get your message to millions of Google users through a software he developed over the last three years.

For that development time and effort and the traffic you can get the price is actually a joke, but I guess it will not stay there. Better you check it now:

<http://infobiz.info/googletrafficstrategy.php>

Bonuses

My bonuses – applicable to all my recommendations above had to be changed a little, but if you look at the real value, its actually increased:

You'll get my personal attention for your personal development via email (unlimited) and skype (upto 5 hours) for full 30 days to help you get up and running fastest possible.

Please make sure that you have no cookies from those sites in your browser. If you need to clear them, you'll find instructions at page 15 of this pdf.

Give me a notice to admin@infobiz.info or suppor@infobiz.info along with your phone number and/or skype id.

If you take me up on this offer and use the full 5 hours on skype, you'll get a real world value of $645 for which I really have to make personal time! And then my email consulting service (usually replied within 12 hours) is another value of at least $300.

Consider that I want your success, I want your testimonial and ultimately have you as my joint venture partner. I believe when we work together with many individual skills and efforts, we'll have all together a very good chance to make an impact on the internet marketing community and by the way earn a very good living. All with the mindset (as I'm entering the internet marketing niche) I want to help as many of you as possible to make your living through the internet and move to a greater cause because we cannot rely on jobs anymore, we cannot rely on governments and the big companies would rather like to eat us alive than give us a piece of the cake, right? So, are you with me?

By the way, if you don't utilize the consulting I'll compensate you with other products or services (I'm working on a complete software program for product, list and affiliate management as well as including unlimited tracking and autoresponders) – we'll talk about your requirements one on one so that you'll get a real helpful value for growing your business.

I've seen hardly anyone trying to make it online to succeed without the help of a good coaching or a good mentor!

There are so many aspects in your business to handle like listbuilding, webdesign, autoresponders, copy, building relationships, creating content and products, driving traffic and what not...

And then there are too many offers in your inbox - everyone trying to sell you the latest fad..

Whom should you listen to?

Which of the hundreds of ways should you go?

in one word: information-overload!

Stop it! - I can help you!

Many of those who started this online venture with nothing but strong determination and focus managed to earn a very comfortable living by now - see Alex..

Again, start to build your list of subscribers, build a relationship with them and help them to get what they're looking for.

May be one of the easiest for you to start with, turn the PLR products which you have on your PC into your own products and offer some of them in exchange for your visitors optin and others to make your first products for sale. Where do you get your visitors?

Start here:

<http://infobiz.info/gway>

and participate in as many events as possible as a contributor.

That isn't the only way of course, but a free and easy way to start with. - Get into the water - asap.

My personal offer for you:

Need any help? Ask me. I really want to help you. My plans will not allow me to keep my following offer up for much longer:

Some emails from my clients:

*"I appreciate the products and your knowledge..
.. you the first teacher who listened and helped me.."*

"To tell you the truth, I dont have one good friend out there untill I met you. Assure you someday, I will announce to the world that my success started because you were there to make it happen. I will owe it to you all."

"Thanks for all your support, knowledge, downloads and very good recommendations which you gave me in this year..."

You'll not believe what you can achieve with a one hour focused skype session. If the gurus are too expensive for you, try my consultation free for 20 minutes - and then, if you like it, I only charge $129/h presently.

If you decide it doesn't help you, I don't want you to pay anything for it. First of all use email to send me your questions, absolutely free! I'm really serious to help you grow together with me. Many problems, even big ones may be solved by this way..

Please use following email for that: admin@infobiz.info

- I don't know for how long I'll offer this! I may discontinue this offer anytime upon notice.

Or join any of the programs I recommended you above and get it free for 30 days – Please make sure that you don't have other cookies from these sites in your browser – you can find instructions at the end of this pdf.

If you're new to my list, please find your PLR and other gifts by visiting following sites:

Resources and Bonuses

Check out the following resource to go around spam filters and junk folders

You've Got Cash 4 Sure! - This special report (with videos) was written for email campaigns, but it is a very good strategy for e-zine publishing as well. Publish your e-zine or message like this one on a website or in a pdf. You can get this report for free personal use (presently) at:

You've Got Cash!

Build your mailing list the professional and easy way:

For capturing your prospects names and emails I recommend you a powerful software which will track your visitors and conversions as well as personalize the after pages and much more. You can find it here:

Squeeze Page Simple

Auto Responder accounts:

If by any chance you have yet to get yourself an auto responder, here the most reliable auto responder service with highest delivery rates:

<http://www.aweber.com/>

You may set up your own auto responder on your own domain and save the monthly costs of about $15 to $25.

For a smaller one time fee you can get the popular "AutoResponder Unlimited" from here.

Don't underestimate the power of auto responders. Imagine that your phone only worked 40% of the time - your automatic salespeople!

Domain Name Registration

Because of service, ease of use and price, I recommend getting your domain names at:

<http://www.namecheap.com/>

Hosting Service

My highest recommendation goes to Hostgator. I've used many hosting services in the past, but now I host all my sites with Hostgator because they are reliable, don't charge for every extra and they never let me down with any problems. Recently they provided me with a dedicated IP for only $2/m and with my hosting plan I got 600 GB of disc space and 6 TB of bandwidth (traffic), unlimited domains .. for only $7.95/m

(top service and features, even for $4.95/m):

<http://secure.hostgator.com>

Its not advised to save on hosting costs and specifically, if you're not experienced, you may need the service of a good provider.

Video Vault

If you need instructions for setting up your website, getting traffic and others, become a free member of my Video Vault with presently about 280 instructional videos. Go to the following page where you'll also find some other goodies and sign up for the videos at the bottom:

Update:

yeah, honestly my friend, I'm missing your comments, I'm missing your questions or problems or whatever. I really like your participation and I like to create what you need, but for that I need your participation.

Are you spending your time now twittering or facebooking?

Or is it just information overload? Are you still busy studying what you collected at the many giveaways during the holiday season?

I understand, the information overload is a real problem, also for me often enough. If you don't get any value from my emails, products, recommendations and gifts, please unsubscribe and reduce your cluttering.

If you are receiving multiple emails from me, it might be due to collecting different gifts, please keep only one subscription - I don't want to be responsible for filling up your inbox with clutter. Exceptions are of course my product related emails, but they don't get my regular newsletter (so very few emails).

Anyway, unsubscribe from any list which is not helping you in your business or eating up your time for no value.

Please tell me what you need and I'll try to provide it. From end of this month I'll be on a longer vacation, but before and after I want to do something for you.

Meanwhile build your list and establish yourself in the market. A free and easy way is to participate in giveaways (newly updated): <http://infobiz.info/gway>

- this time you get access to the live videos of his very private traffic workshop in his house.

I watched already 5 of them - he's not holding back anything - Howie is my traffic hero. Don't know how long he'll keep this site up, but I tell you to get on his list at least to stay upto date with any developments at Google and other traffic related news.

Please read through to my PS at the end of this pdf, because I'm giving you my best recommendations and describe you a little about my next product on the way and the PS contains my special Beta Tester offer: 6 month free Infobiz Manager. Thank you.

From before:

There are some timesensitive informations and offers – so I don't want to waste your time:

First:

Now, if you didn't start yet, what is holding you back from starting your Internet business, from realizing your dream of working from home, to be independent of anybody else?

Is it one of these?

- don't know how to web design
- don't know how to make graphics
- don't know what product to make
- don't know how to copywrite (i.e. make sales letters)
- don't know how to make good videos
- don't know how to make multiple streams of income
- don't have the money to hire a programmer
- don't have the money to hire a web designer
- don't know what to sell

There are many other reasons why you might not be making money online, and today you'll know a way by which they will all be overcome:

If Niches In A Box is still too technological for you, Matthew got it done for you! I strongly urge you to watch the video at the page above so that you can see how 5 minutes of your time will solve every one of those problems. This is even more than a business in a box in the sense that ALL techi stuff is completely taken care of.

Because I'm a friend of Matthew you'll get a headstart, if you register yourself – just click the button Add To Cart and you'll be taken to the registration page. That is not a purchase yet. Launch day is expected to be February 10th.

If you want to get one of Matthew's products to convince yourself about the quality he produces, go to:

<http://infobiz.info/21-day-formula.php>

Matthew is repeating his 21 Day Formula course and he offers you one out of four of his top products as a gift just for joining his free course.. You can choose from:

- * BBO Infinite Profits ($97)
- * Rapid Adwords Advertising ($97)
- * Rapid Banner Advertising ($97)
- Rapid Video Marketing ($97)

These are full size, content-packed products with videos and the whole stuff.

Go ahead and get yours now, and enjoy!

Next:

this following video is only for you, please don't share – and I don't know how long Andrew will keep this online for us:

<http://infobiz.info/CBWealth.php>

It's about a sizzling HOT system my friend Andrew Fox used to generate...

- $199,877.54 from a SINGLE website doing nothing for traffic!
- $5720.96 in the last 15 days on autopilot.
- A Single commission check of $29,813.00.

In fact he's going to GIVE the 'CB Automated Income' formula in this secret video presentation.

Be ready for some surprises.
For your eyes only...

<http://infobiz.info/CBWealth.php>

If you want to consider investing in his offer – I'm convinced it is a super deal for anyone from newbie to seasoned marketer. Who doesn't want to get a proven set up business with step by step instructions including the leverage of a well known Clickbank vendor?

With this one you can establish a real business in short time and grow it big! For this one I'll make you a crazy bonus offer – see below my next post:

From my email – this is for you, if you're ready to generate massive traffic:

ALERT: Brand New Automation Software!

Ross Goldberg has JUST released the automation software of the year...

Though it's only January, I don't see how anyone is going to top this.

The "Internet Marketing Revolution" is here!

<http://infobiz.info/rossrevolution.php>

This software helps you automate submitting your content to:

40 Video Sites

40 Social Bookmarking Sites

67 Article Directories

59 Blog/RSS Directories

26 Podcast Directories

3,010 Web Directories

28 Press Release Sites

And unlike so many of the auto submission software tools out there - this is a ONE-TIME payment for unlimited use, NO MONTHLY FEES

Take a quick look at what else this must have tool can do...

*Lets you add in unlimited directories to any category.

*Takes the guesswork out of where you should post your content.

*Auto-fills all of your info to save you massive amounts of time.

*Lets you have 10 browsers open at a time to let you get even more submissions done, fast!

*Only has tactics that work, no safelists, Gmail, or forum spamming here!

*No more wondering where to post your content, all of the best sites are built in.

*Spins your content automatically, making it unique (including videos!)

*Most importantly, Has No Recurring Fees

<http://infobiz.info/rossrevolution.php>

Super Bonus:

If you invest into the Matthew's Total Package, CB Wealth Formula or into Ross' Revolution, I'll not only give you the bonuses explained on page 11 but also 2 month free of my upcoming Infobiz Manager, the Affiliate, Autoresponder and Product Management software expected to launch in March or April.

It will be priced at $77/month, but the launch price will be $27/month and you'll have this rate of $27/month as long as you stay a member. Just look at what this software will accomplish for you at a price at which you normally just get an autoresponder:

Autoresponder Manager:

Full Integration of PayPal as Payment Processor

One Time Payments or Recurring Billing

Shipping and Tax Details

Sales Statistics

Tracking of Sales, Expenses and Conversions

Affiliates Manager:

Unlimited Affiliates or Joint Ventures

Point and Click Signup Forms

Choose One Tier or Two Tier and Freely decide your Commission Rates in $ or %

Use PayPal Mass Payment System with a few clicks

Set Cookie Duration

Affiliate Center (for your affiliates)

Add any type of Affiliates Promotion Tools

Separate Autoresponder for your Affiliates/Joint Ventures

Tracking for you and your affiliates

All System Components are integrated with one another and Online Helpfiles with index – all controlled by one control panel

The development cost of this fully integrational software already exceeds $200.000! What else do you need to automate your online business?

You get to use the Beta Version immediately for free until Launch and then two month more after Launch, more than 3 month free! Within this 3 month you should have increased your business output easily by $27/month (just 1 ebook or what?) so that it actually goes for you at no extra expense.

Always trying to make your life easier.

If you can't decide which system is best for you, give me an email to support@infobiz.info with your skype ID and I'll call you back asap trying to talk it out with you. Don't hesitate – I want to help you, and if you are serious to get out of the rat race, you have to make the first step.
